Eastbourne, of Saxon origin, is an unspoilt elegant Victorian seaside resort.

Nestling under the Sussex Downs it enjoys a very clement climate all year round.

It is protected from the more adverse weather conditions from the Channel by the 575ft cliffs of Beachy Head and is renowned for its exquisite Carpet and Italian Gardens. Eastbourne sits on the south coast of East Sussex between Brighton and Hastings, known as the Empress of Watering Places; Eastbourne is the perfect example of Victorian architecture and is the perfect gateway to explore 1066 history, the ancient South Downs Way and the fascinating Sussex Weald.
